OIE & Our Website

The Office of International Education (OIE) is here to assist in making studying abroad a reality for all Morehouse College students.

There are a number of ways to study abroad.

- Short-term Faculty Led Experiences
- Semester-long Experiences during the Academic Year or Summer
- Short-term Research Experiences
- Short-term Service Experiences

Please frequently utilize the Morehouse Study Abroad Website! In addition to our monthly newsletter, students can view important announcements and updates on our website.

The site includes detailed information on study abroad offerings available for Morehouse students. These offerings include short-term study abroad experiences offered by Morehouse College faculty and featured programs offered by our Preferred Partners: Arcadia, CAPA, CIEE, IES Abroad, and ISEP. To ensure affordability, the featured semester and/or academic year programs are equal to or less than the cost of Morehouse College tuition. Additionally, the site includes an application portal for student applications and provides important information and instructions on identifying a program, financing study abroad, scholarship resources, course approval process, other study abroad student policies, safety procedures, and more. The website is designed to simplify the steps students are required to take in order to study abroad.

If you missed one of our first four fall 2020 virtual study abroad sessions with our external partners, please see the link to the Zoom recordings/information, here. The OIE October/November 2020 calendar of events and information can be found, here.

Critical Language Scholarship

The U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs provides American students with the opportunity to enjoy fully funded overseas summer language and cultural immersion programs through the awarding of Critical Language Scholarships (CLS) each year. Applicants are selected based on their commitment to studying non-traditional languages abroad, including Arabic, Japanese, Swahili, and Russian. The Critical Language Scholarship is only open to American undergraduate and graduate students.

Deadlines: Nov. 17, 2020.

Taipei, Taiwan

Summer 2021 HBCU Taiwan Study Program

With the generous support of TECRO (Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office in the United States) and the American Institute in Taiwan of the US Department of State, 20 HBCU students will have the opportunity to participate in a fully funded study trip to Taiwan in the summer of 2021. Students will experience Taiwan's modern, traditional, urban, suburban and rural life while discovering how Chinese /Taiwanese traditional culture coexists with Taiwan's modern and democratic culture.

Taiwan has had a long political and economic partnership with the US. The current political and economic tensions between China and the US have placed Taiwan at the forefront of US national security concerns and peace efforts in the world.

The program includes language study, lectures, day trips, hands-on learning, and guided study tours to museums such as the National Palace Museum, Taipei 101, and other historical sites.

How to Afford Study Abroad?

This virtual discussion will focus on students who are interested in finding and funding their study abroad experience with various scholarship and fellowship opportunities. We will also discuss other tips for finding and funding international experience. Please join us!
