Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship Application Now Open

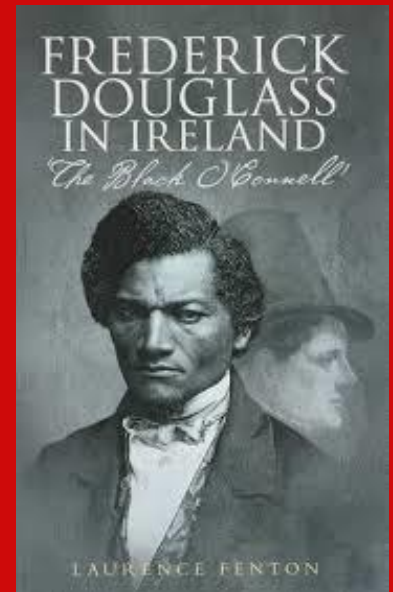

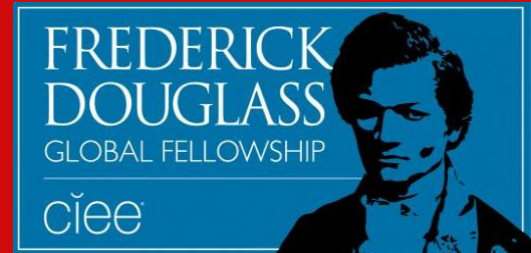

The Frederick Douglass Global Fellowship covers all program fees and travel costs for a customized summer study abroad program focused on key intercultural frameworks and leadership practices.

To celebrate the 175th anniversary of Frederick Douglass's legendary tour of Ireland, the Irish Department of Foreign Affairs is co-sponsoring the next cohort. The 2021 Fellows will be based in Dublin and will travel to other cities where Douglass campaigned. They will have the opportunity to meet senior government representatives, including the Irish Taoiseach (Prime Minister), as well as leaders of organizations who fight for social justice and support diverse communities in Ireland.

The Fellows will also meet Nettie Washington Douglass, the great, great granddaughter of Frederick Douglass and co-founder of the Frederick Douglass Family Initiative, who has supported the Fellowship since its inception. (If you are interested, you can watch her August 2020 interview with CBS This Morning about her ancestor's journey to Ireland on YouTube.)

The application is online at www.ciee.org/FDGF, and due on February 14, 2021, Frederick Douglass' birthday. CIEE invites applications from 1st, 2nd or 3rd year students, with a GPA of 3.0 or above to apply for the study abroad programs.

The application requires a recent transcript, a letter of recommendation, and a video about yourself. While the Fellowship is competitive, as part of CIEE's mission to increase access, all eligible applicants receive a $1500 scholarship for any CIEE summer program.

GRACE LEE BOGGS 1915-2015

OIE Internatinal Films Festival

During the winter break, I invite everyone to watch fascinating documentaries and feature films about how people from all over the world have joined the African American fight for social justice and a better future for humankind.

The first film I highly recommend is about Grace Lee Boggs, a Chinese American, who worked with her husband James Boggs and became a prominent activist and thinker in the Civil Rights and Black Power Movement. Her life has been an inspiration for many people, including me. I would like to invite you to a discussion after viewing the film. The film is extremely powerful and inspiring. (Dr. Ruihua Shen)

Time: December 9, 2020 (Wed). Zoom ID: 999 1870 8429. Link is here: Film Festival Session

If you have never heard of her before, it is time for you to watch this film!
