The Office of International Education is pleased to announce that study abroad for Morehouse College students will resume in the spring 2021.

Spring 2021

Students are allowed to participate in academic term study abroad experiences during spring 2021 with Morehouse College approved providers, including CIEE, IES, ISEP, CAPA, and Arcadia. Each of these partners has strong safety and emergency support and protocols. Students are able to select from a curated list of offerings available on the Morehouse College Education Abroad website: <https://studyabroad.morehouse.edu>.

Please review the website and available programs to learn more about the specific experiences offered as well as due dates for applications (some of which are in early October).

Summer 2021

Students will be allowed to participate in study abroad experiences with Morehouse approved providers and will be allowed to participate in faculty and staff-led, short-term experiences during the summer 2021. Information about these opportunities, including destinations, academic credit, and costs will be available on the Morehouse College Education Abroad website.

Please note that Morehouse College may discontinue study abroad opportunities as required due to health or safety concerns.

Classroom.

Our Providers IES and CAPA Come to Morehouse Virtually

Please attend these information sessions designed for prospective students who are interested in studying abroad in 2021 and beyond.

IES offers study abroad programs at these locations in Spring 2021: London, England; San Jose, Costa Rica; Tartu, Estonia. Some programs are tailored for students in health sciences.

CAPA offers study abroad and international internship in Barcelona, Dublin, Florence, London and Sydney in Summer 2020.

Scholarships for Study Abroad

Studying abroad can be a life-changing experience! Fortunately, many organizations offer special scholarships for Morehouse students.

The Gilman Scholarship Program provides up to $5,000 for undergraduate students who are both U.S. citizens and Federal Pell Grants recipients to participate in in-person or virtual international programs. The Gilman-McCain Scholarship provides $5,000 scholarships for children of active duty military personnel who receive any type of Title IV federal Financial Aid to study or intern Abroad. It is open now!

<https://www.gilmanscholarship.org/applicants/application-overview/>

There are two deadlines: October 6, 2020 or March 2021. The scholarships are for you to study abroad during Spring, Summer and Fall 2021.

Many Morehouse students were awarded this prestigious scholarship. Eight students from the Chinese Studies Program were the recipients of this scholarship over the last five years. It is easy to apply.

We will help you apply for this scholarship.

Please contact Dr. Ruihua.Shen@morehouse.edu, if you need assistance.

Fellowships Available for Seniors

Morehouse Seniors, you can apply for the following fellowships if you aspire to become foreign service officers in the future.

- Rangel Graduate Fellowship Program <http://rangelprogram.org/graduate-fellowship-program/>
- Payne International Development Fellowship Program: <https://www.paynefellows.org/>
- Pickering Foreign Affairs Program <https://apply.pickeringfellowship.org/Default.asp>

To learn more about scholarship opportunities for seniors, please attend a virtual seminar featuring our diplomats-in-residence, Ms. Alexious Butler (USAID) and Mr. Allen DuBose (Department of State) at 5:00 pm on Thursday, September 10, 2020. Details coming soon.

Tod Eheredge '16, Rangel Graduate Fellow

I am a Morehouse man from the class of 2016. I studied International Studies and minored in Chinese. While at Morehouse, I had opportunities to travel to China, South Africa, Zimbabwe, and Israel. After graduating, I worked and traveled in several countries including Denmark, Brazil, and India. I am 2019-20 Fulbright Taiwan alumnus. I am currently a 2019 Charles B. Rangel Fellow for International Affairs pursuing a MA in International Affairs at Columbia University. After completing my master's degree, I will begin a career in the United States Foreign Service as a U.S. diplomat.

Connect with US Our Office Hours

We serve our students, faculty and staff virtually or in-person.

While most services are provided virtually, some issues can be resolved only through in-person meetings. For in-person meetings we will contact you to schedule a mutually agreeable day and time. We follow the guidelines of social distancing and cleaning protocols as described in the President’s Message about the Fall 2020 Semester.

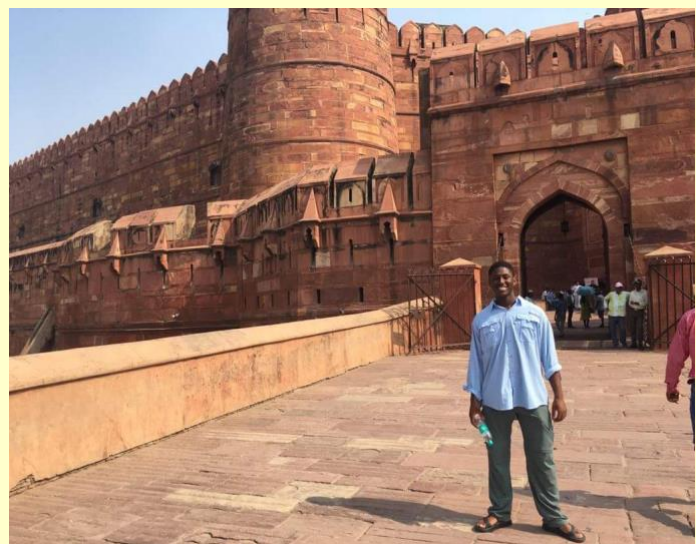

“Forum” Study Abroad Fair

The national Study Abroad organization “Forum” will hold its first ever virtual study abroad fair. Students will be able to interact with presenters via zoom meetings set up in virtual booths and live presentations during the fair.

Time: September 10th, 2020

Please take a look at the fair! Registration is Free!
