Spring 2022 Study Abroad FAQs

Spring 2022 semester study abroad programs and faculty-led programs are now open for application. Please use our website to search programs tailored to your interests and career goals: <https://studyabroad.morehouse.edu/>.

Q: Is Morehouse planning to operate programs abroad during Spring 2022?

A: Yes, Morehouse is planning to operate programs abroad during Spring 2022. The safety of our students, faculty, and staff is our top priority. We will continue to monitor the Covid-19 pandemic closely and will follow guidance from the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), the U.S. Department of State, and the University System of Georgia.

Q: If I apply for a program but I do not have a passport yet, can I get help from OIE?

A: Yes, our Fall 2021 Passport Assistance Program will help you. In addition to assisting you with the passport application, we also provide $100 in financial support for your passport. You have to submit your receipt of application via our website as soon as possible. Once the submission threshold is met, the application portal will close. See application, here.

Study Black Diaspora in the World

$5000 CedintheCity Scholarship for African American Students Deadline Nov. 25, 2021

SCHOLARSHIP OVERVIEW

Cedic said it best, "Dreams don't work unless you do." The CedintheCity Scholars program was created to put feet to CedintheCity's vision to change the face of travel by encouraging African American students to study abroad and supporting their quests to do so. We hope that this program will alleviate some of the financial burden and be a catalyst for African Americans to expand their horizons and deepen their connectivity to other cultures through global travel.

APPLICATION CRITERIA

- African American
- Active college student
- Registered to study abroad in Spring 2022
